

STATE-FUNDED MANUFACTURING TRAINING

Provided by Santa Monica College FREE OF COST TRAINING

For a limited time, Santa Monica College is providing free of cost, highly customized, manufacturing skills training to the employees of Los Angeles-based businesses at their company's site.

MAXIMIZE AND STREAMLINE EMPLOYEE TRAINING

MANUFACTURING CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Manufacturing leaders have struggled with the challenge of manually collecting data and the high risks and expenses of IT projects.

World-class manufacturers have found the "informance" solution as the most effective tool quickly identify waste, performance opportunities, measuring improvements and sustaining gains.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT SOLUTIONS

Courses include:

- Lean Manufacturing
- Implementing ISO 9000
- Six Sigma
- Statistical Process Cycle Times
- Integrated Resource Management
- 10 additional courses

Sign up for: - MRP
- ERP
- SAP
- Planning

MANUFACTURING SKILLS SOLUTIONS

Courses include:

- Programmable Logics Controllers
- CNC Programming
- Production Line Skills
- Risk Assessment & Hazard Analysis
- Quality Systems Requirements, Good Manufacturing Practices, & Inspections
- Writing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)

Over 35 courses available in the area of Manufacturing Skills and Industry Improvement

MORE INFO:

Contact:

- Sasha King, Workforce & Economic Development
- (direct) 310.570.0636
- (office) 310.434.4199
- king_sasha@smc.edu

ELIGIBILITY:

- Employers must have CEAN (CA Employer Account Number)
- Minimum of 18 W-2 employees per class (may combine with other companies)
- Minimum of 8 hours of training required

Provided by:

workforce & economic DEVELOPMENT